PENALTIES UPON LATE RENEWAL OF AN ENTITY:

1. An entity that is due for registration renewal must be renewed within a time frame of two (2) calendar months (grace period) from the date of expiry of its existing registration.
2. An entity applying for registration renewal after the two-calendar month grace period will be subject to a penalty on a graduated scale as per the schedule below:
 - Third month from the date of registration expiry - Renewal fee + 10%.
 - Fourth month from the date of registration expiry - Renewal fee + 25%.
 - Fifth month from the date of registration expiry - Renewal fee + 50%
 - At the beginning of the sixth month from the date of registration expiry, a strike off notice will be issued to the entity.
 - There will be a one calendar month period before formal strike off in which the entity may make written representations to the Registrar, and/or make the renewal payment including the penalty. If no written representation and/or renewal plus penalty payment is made within six months from the date of registration expiry, the entity will be subject to formal strike off from the register.
3. An entity that is struck off from the register can be restored to the register subject to the approval of the Registrar, and upon full payment of all relevant fees and penalties for the period struck off, plus a flat restoration fee of AED 500.
